The Prayers of the People

Presider: Wonderful and compassionate God, you have revealed yourself through your Son Jesus Christ as a God of gentle service, resisting the violence of the proud and confirming the goodness of the innocent: Hear the offering of our prayers on behalf of the little, the last and the lost, as we say: Whoever wants to be first, must be last of all and servant of all.

Litanist: You have called your Church to sacrificial service in the name of your child Jesus: Grant us the wisdom from above which is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, willing to yield, full of mercy and good fruits, without a trace of partiality or hypocrisy, that your church may bring to you a harvest of righteousness. Whoever wants to be first, must be last of all and servant of all.

Confront the leaders of the world with your justice, and raise up courageous witnesses who will oppose wrong action and reprove the thoughts of the violent, that all who serve in positions of authority may join in your divine work to deliver the innocent and vulnerable from the hands of their adversaries. Whoever wants to be first, must be last of all and servant of all.

Be present with those who suffer throughout the world from war or violence or oppression, from illness, poverty or hunger or sadness: Let your kind and gentle hand be with them to comfort and deliver them. Whoever wants to be first, must be last of all and servant of all.

Spread your teaching throughout our community to increase among us those who are wise and understanding, whose works are done with gentleness born of wisdom. Whoever wants to be first, must be last of all and servant of all.

We offer to your gracious protection our intercessions for those for whom we are called to pray, especially those we now mention aloud or in the silence of our hearts (pause); all those serving our country at home and abroad; and those on our prayer list. We thank you for the gift of children and for calm strength and patient wisdom to nurture them as they grow to love whatever is just and true and good. We bring you our gratefulness for all our joys and blessings, especially for those celebrating birthdays and anniversaries Rebecca, Michael, Mellody, JT, Bill, Claire, Cameron & Hannah. We entrust to your never failing care and love those who have died, especially those we now remember aloud or in the silence of our hearts (pause). Whoever wants to be first, must be last of all and servant of all.

Presider: God and Father of our Savior Jesus Christ, who has endured the path of betrayal and death and triumphed in humble resurrection: Help us to extend your gentle embrace unto all your children, and thus welcome you into our lives through service and gratefulness, in the power of your Spirit and in the name of your risen and living Son. Amen.
