Prayers of the People

Presider: Salvation belongs to our God and to the Lamb, to whom be glory forever. We offer our prayers and praises on behalf of ourselves, our neighbors and the world, saying: Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might be to our God forever and ever!

Litanist: Gracious One, through Christ our Shepherd you call your Church to hear your voice and to continue the good works that Christ does in the Father's name: Guide us along right pathways for your name's sake. Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might be to our God forever and ever!

Before your throne, O Holy One, is an uncounted multitude from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages: Guide the leaders of the nations toward the reconciliation of all peoples from different races and cultures and faiths, that we may walk in your ways of peace, may hunger and thirst no more, and may fear no evil. Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might be to our God forever and ever!

Compassionate God, let the voice of the Good Shepherd be heard everywhere, to comfort and guide all who are in trouble or in anguish throughout the world. Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might be to our God forever and ever!

Revive our souls and lead us beside still waters, O Loving One, that we may know your voice within us, and your rod and your staff may comfort us. Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might be to our God forever and ever!

Our prayers join with the praise and intercession of the heavenly chorus as we bring before you our concerns, especially for those we now mention aloud or in the silence of our hearts (pause); all those serving our country at home and abroad; and those on our prayer list. Our cup is running over with gratitude as we thank you for all our many blessings, especially for those celebrating birthdays and anniversaries Jim, Alicia, Colette, Richard & Susan. We commend to your salvation those who have walked through the valley of death and have come out of the great ordeal. Guide them to the springs of the water of life and wipe away every tear from their eyes, as we remember those who have died, especially those we now remember aloud or in the silence of our hearts (pause). Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might be to our God forever and ever!

Presider: Our Good and Generous God, you have spread the table before us and invited us into communion with you in the new life of resurrection: Let your Spirit of goodness and mercy follow us all the days of our lives, that all humanity may know Christ the Good Shepherd, and dwell in your house forever. Amen.

Mothers day prayer:

God our Creator, we pray for new mothers, coming to terms with new responsibility; for expectant mothers, wondering and waiting; for those who are tired, stressed or depressed; for those who struggle to balance the tasks of work and family; for those who are unable to feed their children due to poverty; for those whose children have physical, mental or emotional disabilities; for those who raise children on their own; for those who have lost a child; for those who care for the children of others; for those whose children have left home; and for those whose desire to be a mother has not been fulfilled. Bless all mothers, that their love may be deep and tender, and that they may lead their children to know and do what is good, living not for themselves alone, but for God and for others. Amen.
